Bible Reading Record

How to use this reading record:

1. Print this sheet out and fold it in half. Use it to keep track of where you are in reading through the Bible.
2. The books of the Bible are listed in the order in which they appear in Scripture, by Old and New Testaments. Following each book title is a list of the chapters in the book. For example, the book of Mark has 16 chapters, so there are 16 numerals printed after it.
3. After you have completed your reading each day, mark out the numbers of the chapter(s) you read. For example, if you read the first two chapters of Mark, you would draw a diagonal line or an "X" through numbers 1 and 2.
4. When you finish reading a book, record the date on which you completed it.
5. You do not have to read the books in the order they are listed. You can start with the book of John, and then move on to another book, such as I Kings. However, here are several recommendations:
  - a. In general, complete one book before moving on to another book in the Bible. However, when reading a more difficult book such as Leviticus, it may be helpful to read that book concurrently with either Psalms or Proverbs.
  - b. Do not reread a book until you have read through all the other books of the Bible.
  - c. Keep this reading record in the Bible in which you are doing your daily Bible reading. Be sure to fill in the record right after you finish reading.

This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.

Joshua 1:8
